

October 15, 2019

Dear Parents,

The beautiful month of October has arrived, and our good friends at St. Ann's Mission are counting, once again, on our compassion and generosity.

As part of our JOY (Jesus 1st, Others 2nd, and Yourself last) philosophy, we have committed ourselves to supply the migrant workers at St. Ann's Mission in Naranja with food twice a year.

Our October collection is the first and by this time of the year, St. Ann's food inventory is usually very low. St. Ann's mission is in desperate need of our assistance, and through our efforts, this collection will certainly be a welcome relief to these families.

This is a wonderful opportunity to remind our children of the many blessings we have received and of our responsibility to help those in need.

We are asking each family of the Academy to bring to school $10.00 worth of the St. Ann's item assigned per class starting today and ending Monday, October 28th.

HELP US FILL THE SHELVES

Please reference the list below for the items our brothers and sisters in Naranja need to fill the shelves.

The last day we will be collecting donations is Monday, October 28.

What a beautiful way of celebrating J.O.Y!

Thank you for your cooperation.

May our Good Lord bless you today and always!
