HOLY YEAR OF MERCY

Today's Gospel graces us with a beautiful prayer that can make every day of our lives a jubilee of mercy: "O God, be merciful to me a sinner" (Luke 18:13). Religious Israelites despised the tax collector who prayed it, for collaborating with Gentile occupiers and handling currency that bore the "divine" emperor's graven image. But the Pharisee's long-winded self-congratulation, mixed with self-righteous condemnation, was no "prayer" at all. "The Pharisee . . . spoke this prayer to himself" (18:11, emphasis added). Praying the tax collector's simple, sincere, succinct cry for mercy acknowledges our own sinfulness, and "welcomes" other sinners as brothers and sisters with whom we can identify, even empathize, echoing Pope Francis' famous comment about not being the one to judge. Indeed, the tax collector "went home justified" (18:14), that is, restored to God's friendship, for God's mercy is not prize achieved but gift received. "Let your prayer be brief: for tax collector, prodigal son, and dying thief were all reconciled to God by a single phrase!" (Saint John Climacus, 7th century).

OCTOBER 23 WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This weekend we join with Catholics worldwide in praying for the Missions. The weekend of October 23, there will be a Second Collection to support the missionary work of Priests, Religious and Lay people who work in village missions, schools, clinics, evangelization programs.

HUMOR CORNER

Late one night, a burglar broke into a house he thought was empty. He tiptoed through the living room but suddenly he froze in his tracks when he heard a loud voice say: "Jesus is watching you!" Silence returned to the house, so the burglar crept forward again. "Jesus is watching you," the voice boomed again. The burglar stopped dead again. He was frightened. Frantically, he looked all around. In a dark corner, he spotted a bird cage and in the cage was a parrot. He asked the parrot: "Was that you who said Jesus is watching me?" "Yes," said the parrot. The burglar breathed a sigh of relief and asked the parrot: "What's your name?" "Clarence," said the bird. "That's a dumb name for a parrot," sneered the burglar. "What idiot named you Clarence?" The parrot said, "The same idiot who named the Doberman Jesus."

The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest until it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds. — Sirach 35:17-18a

Gospel: Luke 18: 9-14

Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. “Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, ‘O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity - greedy, dishonest, adulterous - or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.’ But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, ‘O God, be merciful to me a sinner.’ I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Brief Commentary

Today’s parable condemns the self-righteous, critical attitude of the Pharisee and teaches that the fundamental attitude of the Christian disciple must be the recognition of sinfulness and complete dependence on God’s graciousness. Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. The two men are stereotypes of the good and the bad person. The Pharisee is a good person who follows the laws, tithes, fasts, etc. His problem is that he looks upon himself as one who deserves rewards from God for a job well done. He is not only proud, but guilty of judging the tax collector who, on the other hand, knows he has not done anything to deserve God’s grace. In this parable, Jesus turns upside down the values of the times. Tax collectors were considered traitors to their own kind, collecting taxes in the name of the pagan conquerors and more often than not pocketed some of the money collected. This man represents the bad and yet he is the one who goes home justified. This parable recalls the story of the pardoning of the sinful woman (Luke 7:36-50) where a similar contrast is presented between the critical attitude of the Pharisee Simon and the love shown by the pardoned sinner.

La lectura de hoy nos presenta tres ideas importantes:

- Jesus reversed all the expectations of the times: the last shall be first, the poor are blessed, the meek will inherit the land, and those who humble themselves shall be exalted.
- The kingdom is not reserved for the self-righteous but for the humble. Sincerity of heart and humility before God make prayer acceptable.
- The words of the tax collector are one of the sources of the ancient Jesus Prayer: “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.”

Para la reflexión comunitaria:

Después de una pausa breve para reflexionar en silencio, comparte con otros sus ideas o sentimientos.

1. How do you really feel about this parable? Is it just? If you are a good person who does more for the Church than others, don’t you deserve better than them?
2. Take some time this week to repeat the Jesus Prayer a few times. Do it slowly and let it touch your heart. How does it make you feel?
